TRAIN'S QUEER FANCY.

George Francis Train Begins the Third Week of His Fast.

He Thinks His Experience Will be Valuable to Scientists.

He is Anxious to Get Rid of His Superfluous Flesh.

Uncertain as to When his Fast May Come to an End.

Train Still Fasting

NEW YORK, May 3.—George Francis Train passed the fourteenth day of his total abstinence from food and drink except water and a little lemonade, yesterday. This afternoon he rose late and went for his usual Turkish bath. He is growing perceptibly thinner and says that his weight is now only 174 pounds. He nervously pinches up the loose bronzed skin which begins to hang with a suggestion of ghastly emptiness about his chin and on his slender hands. In reply to a questioner as to how his head felt he asked another "How do my eyes look?" "As though you slept badly."

"Well," said Train, "I don't sleep so well as I did and I am aware that the depletion of my system is beginning to tell upon my eye sight." Train was sitting indoors wrapped in a heavy fur trimmed coat, yet he observed in the flood of May sunshine streaming in at the windows. He chafed his hand, tightly inclosing the palm and called attention to the red blood flowing quickly back into the proper channels. "You see my circulation is good; better than that of the average man. I watch all my symptoms closely and the observations I am now taking may be of considerable value to medical scientists. I am not a suicide people declare, trying to commit suicide. I am not fasting to die, I am fasting to live. Others, we are on the eve of a great pestilence and I shall be able to [illegible] it better if I get rid of what is known as superfluous willingness, but is in reality, nothing but rot. I have not put any limit to the period of my fast. I do not feel moved to break it yet. I may eat to-morrow and I may fast for 100 days.

Mr. Tyner.

DAYTON, May 3. Sometime after 5 o'clock this afternoon the grand jury which has been in session at the [illegible] house building for several days past, ordered the issuance of warrants for the arrest of over two hundred inmates of the French houses of prostitution in this city. Accordingly Sheriff Weber at once and [illegible] his entire force of deputies numbering about thirty, and securing the services of half a dozen hacks and omnibuses commenced operations by a raid on the dens of Holladay street where [illegible] twenty-five of the unfortunates were quickly hurried into the vehicles and driven to the county court house where they were at once taken before the grand jury for examination. The officers immediately returned to Holladay street after another invoice of frail femininity which was as promptly returned and delivered over into the toils of the law.

The first intimation that was given of the [illegible] raid was the appearance of the officers upon Holladay street and as soon as their intentions became known the news spread along the "row" with lightning like rapidity and women in all sorts of costumes began to appear in the alleys and doorways in a frantic effort to escape their pursuers. The telephone was at once brought into play and hacks from various stables in the city were summoned post haste and many of the [illegible] thus made their escape into the country as fast as fleet horses could carry them. The officers, however, continued the raid until nearly two hundred were corralled in the court house. Some gave bail and others were taken to the county jail to await a hearing to-morrow.

Bradstreet's Review of Trade.

NEW YORK, May 2.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade says: The unprecedented interruption of business by the centennial [illegible] and the celebration has made the week nearly a blank in financial and commercial respects. At New York accumulated orders gave a surface appearance of greater activity on Thursday and Friday but it is not too soon to judge which way the tide will turn and the reports from other cities though nearly all hopeful in tone, do not indicate the expected improvement. The situation is best at Milwaukee satisfactory at Omaha, good at Cleveland as to most branches, but questionable as to iron, rather dull at Kansas City and St. Paul and less encouraging at the chief centers of the grain, iron, coal and leather trades.

Collections are far from satisfactory at Milwaukee and do not improve at Detroit. But in other cities generally they seem fairly satisfactory and at New York some dry goods dealers complain that collections are "too good," the buyers keep so far within their means. The reports about the wool trade are contradictory. A report that the treasury may not decide the woolen worsted question for months disturbs importers who have quantities of goods locked up because collectors wait for a decision. Otherwise the woolen trade shows a little better movement. Silks are quiet, but linens are quite active. A fair business in boots and shoes continues. The paper trade is active. The show improvement continues in drugs and chemicals.

Coal is dull. The reported increase in stocks for March is 60,000 tons and a strike at Pittsburg is expected. Copper still waits. Tin is lower and $22.40 is paid for prompt delivery here and lead is very much demoralized. Wheat goes lower yet, having sold at 82½ cents. Corn has declined ½ and oats 1 cent since last week. Pork is unchanged with lard and hogs a shade higher. Coffee and sugar are unchanged but oil is ½ higher. In general the course of prices still tends downward but many products of large importance are now so low that not much further decline is expected while a quick advance might follow a revival of demand or speculative confidence.

Stocks have been neglected and dull, but a little stronger in price, with a disposition to believe that the next considerable movement must be upward. The future of the market is likely to depend much upon the movements of money and the feeling of foreign investors and for the moment both favor holders. But bankers look upon a considerable outgo of specie as not improbable and the policy of Secretary Windom, as far as it has been made known, does not seem likely to cause large disbursements before July. The one favorable feature is that wheat exports are still large. The treasury has taken during the week $1,850,000 more than it has paid out. The customs balances exceed $3,000,000 for the week and $16,000 for last week and 200 for the week previous. For the corresponding week of [illegible] years the figures were 344.

Heavy Grain Shipments

NEW YORK, May 3.—Lazard Freres & Co. today ordered 50,000 quarters of beans for shipment to France. Brown Brothers & Co. have ordered 40,000 and sold for shipment to England.

Calling for an Explanation

WASHINGTON, May 3. The president and secretary of the navy have called upon the United States [illegible] for an explanation of the charges in the report of the inspectors of the interior department of certain practices in connection with the public lands in that country.

Public Printer.

CHICAGO, May 3.—A Times Washington special asserts that the president tonight sent a telegram to Chicago asking Frank Palmer if he would accept the office of public printer. Mr. Palmer lives in a suburban town the message will not be delivered until morning. If he accepts the appointment it will, together with that of Captain Meredith as chief of the bureau of engraving, be announced to-morrow.

Death in a Passenger Car

PHILADELPHIA, May 3.—A coach containing eleven persons was struck by a train on the Pennsylvania road this morning and T. K. Womrath and James Durgan were killed. Many of the passengers were local politicians, who said they were on their way home from the centennial jollification. Womrath was formerly a member of the city council. Half a dozen persons were more or less seriously injured.

Old Californian Buried.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The funeral of Squire Pierce Dewey, an old Californian, took place to-day from the Collegiate Dutch Reformed church. Rev. C. H. Cox conducted the services. The interment was at Woodland cemetery. Among those in attendance were Chauncey M. Depew, Eugene Kelly, Whitelaw Reid, William Florence, Joseph J. O'Donohue D. O. Mills and a large delegation from the Union League club.

Barnum's Funeral.

LITTLE ROCK, Conn., May 3.—The funeral services over the remains of Wm. H. Barnum were held at 1 p. m. to-day at Trinity church. Special trains were run from New York and Hartford bringing mourners from all over the country. Among them were many prominent politicians including ex-President Cleveland, Senator McDonald and Colonel Bright of Indiana, Calvin S. Brice, ex-Governor Loomis, C. M. Jordan and many other personal and political friends of the dead man.

A Case of Foul Play.

BALTIMORE, May 3.—A distressing accident by which four children of Charles Williams, aged from six to fifteen years, were burned to death, took place last night at Abingdon. The family consisting of the man and wife and five children, retired at 10 o'clock. An hour later some neighbors saw the house burning. Mr. and Mrs. Williams escaped with their baby who will probably die. The parents themselves were seriously burned and the house was burned to the ground consuming four of the children.

Blaine Improving.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Blaine appeared at the state department this morning showing no traces of his recent illness. The new British minister, Sir Julian Pauncefort, presented himself and was introduced to Blaine who at once conducted him to the White house and presented him to the president. The usual compliments were exchanged. Sir Julian presented his credentials and addressing the president gave expression to a feeling of the utmost good will on the part of his government and himself personally toward the United States. He also expressed the belief that this country fully reciprocated the kindly feeling.

President Harrison replied briefly reciprocating the sentiment as to the good will expressed by the new minister and especially expressing his pleasure that the choice of the queen for minister to this country had fallen upon a man so admirably suited to the place as Sir Julian.

Postmaster at Guthrie.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Postmaster General Wanamaker to-day received a telegram from Postmaster Flynn, at Guthrie, Oklahoma, in which he says the daily sale of postage stamps at his office amounts to about fifty dollars; that the eleven clerks in the office are kept busy from five o'clock a. m. until seven at night and that when the mail is ready for delivery there is usually a line of men half a mile long waiting for their mail. About 3,000 letters and 1,000 newspapers are delivered daily. There are five banks and six newspapers in operation in the new town.

Land Commissioner Stockslager to-day received a report from Inspector Hobbs at Guthrie which shows that during the first week the land office was open 4,000 entries were made and 450 notices of contest filed. The following telegram was received by the adjutant general from General Merritt, dated yesterday:

"Everything is quiet in Oklahoma territory. I anticipate no further trouble in the country from any cause but will, in the event of any disturbances, return at once to Oklahoma. I may later to withdraw a part of the troops from the territory."

Darby and Ward were the battery for Aspen and Fitzgerald and Whyte for Leadville. The following is the score by innings:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9

PARNELL ON THE STAND

Cross-Examination of the Famous Irishman Continued.

Sensation Created by His Answer to a Question.

He Acknowledges Having Made an Untrue Statement.

Disappearance of the League's Ledgers and Cash Books.

Parnell's Cross Examination

LONDON, May 3. The cross examination of Parnell was continued to-day. Parnell testified that he had often approved William O'Brien, the editor of United Ireland, for violent articles that appeared in that paper. He had not publicly repudiated the articles because he did not consider that the way to effect the alterations he desired in the tone of the articles. Parnell said he considered O'Brien's teachings in advance of his own.

Parnell said he had never heard of Egan's being associated with the "martyrs fund" for the benefit of families of the Phoenix park murderers. He saw nothing criminal in the fund and rather thought it was right to assist the innocent victims. He could not recollect denouncing the outrages between 1878 and 1881. He believed the outrages perpetrated to have been the work of small secret societies. Here occurred the most remarkable incident in the witness' cross-examination. Attorney General Webster quoted the statement made by Parnell in the commons during the debate on the Forster bill in 1881 suspending the writ of habeas corpus to the effect that secret societies had then ceased to exist in Ireland.

"Did you believe that when you said it?" asked the attorney general.

"No," replied Parnell. "At any rate it was a grossly exaggerated statement. There was a great deal of crime throughout the country at this time."

"Did you or did you not," continued the attorney general, "intend to misstate the facts when you made that statement?"

"I have no doubt that I did," was the reply.

Attorney General—"Deliberately?"

Parnell—"Yes, deliberately."

Attorney general—"You deliberately made that statement knowing it to be untrue?"

Parnell—"Yes, or if not untrue very extravagant and false."

Attorney General—"You have never since withdrawn it?"

Parnell—"No, I have not."

The non-compliance with which the witness made these admissions astonished the audience and elicited the "Probably," added Parnell, "the statement was made to mislead the house. I am afraid it did not, for the billows passed. My purpose was to exaggerate the effect the league had in reducing the number of secret societies. The league had undoubtedly diminished the number of secret societies though it had not swept them away as I stated." Parnell was next asked what had become of the land league books. He explained that some were brought to London and were before the commission, the cash books and ledgers had disappeared, he did not know where, and neither was Treasurer Kelly, Egan or any of the league officials able to tell what had become of them. The letter books and files of letters had also vanished. Presiding Justice Hannan here impressed upon the witness the fact that the court attached great importance to the missing documents and Parnell promised to try to find them.

Terrible Conflagration.

DIXON, Ill., May 3.—Forrester, about twenty miles north of this city, was swept by a terrible conflagration this morning and telegraphed for aid to surrounding towns. The fire was, with the aid called for, placed under control about noon. Three business blocks were entirely destroyed. The loss is about $125,000.

Stock Market.

NEW YORK, May 3.—The stock market was again fairly active and generally strong to-day, but there was not the same activity that has characterized the dealings of the previous few days and some stocks to night are slightly lower than last evening. The great feature of the day was the buying of granger stocks and they again led the list both in point of activity and strength. Government bonds were dull and steady. Money on call easy at 2 to 4. Prime paper 5 to 6.

The Denver Grave Robbers.

DENVER, May 3.—There are no new developments in the Greenlaw grave robbery case. The persons who were arrested yesterday are confined in jail to await a hearing on Monday. Of the principals Brown has been in Denver some time. He has been identified as the man who tried to negotiate with Mrs. Greenlaw and who called himself Williams. He has been a window dresser for Daniels & Fisher and also for Deitrick & Meinhardt. His general reputation is said to be bad. Conrad comes from Pennsylvania originally, but lived in St. Louis before coming to Denver. He is a comparative stranger here. McCoy comes from near Indianapolis. He has been in Denver a year or two.

It Gronewald has been in the wholesale grocery business here for several years but it is said that he has really been an agent for other parties. He is not now in good financial circumstances as he is heavily in debt and recently gave a bill of sale for his whole business to P. L. Bockfinger. A business man who has known Gronewald well says that the arrest of Gronewald for the crime will not be a surprise to those who know him well. Gronewald, he declares, has always borne a very shady reputation in financial matters. The father in law of Gronewald called at police headquarters, but he was refused permission

Don't Go Three Miles Out in the Country for Lots, when you can get them for the Same Money in PARRISH'S ADDITION!

Only 3 Blocks from Cascade Avenue!

Only 3 Blocks from The Antlers Hotel!

Only 4½ Blocks from Post Office!

THE STREETS IN PARRISH'S ADDITION

Are 100 to 140 feet in width. THE ALLEYS are all 20 feet wide. There are no 60 or 80 feet streets, and narrow, 10-feet alleys, such as are found in other loudly advertised "Additions," with high sounding titles, where you pay high prices for lots, without duly considering that you are throwing away your money.

In the Alley Behind Every Lot in Parrish's Addition

There is a 3-inch Water Pipe, connected at Chestnut street with a 16-inch main; the largest in the City's System. THE MAIN CITY DITCH, taking pure, clear water from the Fountain, runs just back of PARRISH'S ADDITION, and within a stone's throw of it.

YOU ARE SURE TO GET WATER

(Both from Pipes and Ditch) in PARRISH'S ADDITION if there is any water in the Fountain, even if other parts of the city are suffering from scarcity of the precious fluid.

REMEMBER THE FOREGOING, and then, when I tell you I will sell you a First-Class

LOT IN PARRISH'S ADDITION FOR $350

To $1,000 a full size lot 50 by 190 feet do not hesitate a moment about buying. You can buy two lots on a corner, and erect pretty little cottages across them, giving each cottage a seat, pretty little yard, and readily rent them, owing to the location, etc.,

To Pay You 25 to 35 Per Cent Per Annum on the Entire Investment.

WHERE CAN YOU DO THIS ELSEWHERE?

The Street Car Line Runs Through PARRISH'S ADDITION, from East to West, and will doubtless soon be extended to the North, past the "Mesa Road," up to THE ROCK ISLAND SHOPS. Lots are sold on Terms to Suit Buyers, if possible.

I AM ALSO SELLING

LOTS IN CALVERT HEIGHTS!

On Easy Terms, and at from $300 to $400. They bear very much the same relation to

COLORADO CITY,

As do Parrish Addition Lots to Colorado Springs, and

I CAN RECOMMEND THEM AS AN INVESTMENT!

SURE TO PAY A BIG PROFIT

DURING THE COMING YEAR.

CALVERT HEIGHTS!

Is surrounded by growing and progressive enterprises. THE ROCK ISLAND SHOPS lie at its Northeast corner. Colorado City proper is to the North and Northeast of it. Bott's Additions join it on the North and Northwest. Colorado Springs itself is in full view, only two miles to the Southeast, and last though not least important,

The * Great * Glass * Manufacturing * Works

Are to be erected (at once) just south of CALVERT HEIGHTS. I have arranged to have every lot supplied with PURE WATER IN PIPES.

THE LOCATION IS SUPERB!

THE SURROUNDING VIEWS

ARE MAGNIFICENT!

Last year I recommended you to buy lots in Parrish's Addition, and they have paid a better Profit than any other lots on the market. This year I urge you to add to Your Investments as Many Lots in CALVERT HEIGHTS as you can afford to buy, with the result that before the year is out, you will again be glad that you have taken my advice.

CALVERT HEIGHTS! THEY GROW!

There are not very many lots altogether, and those who apply late, may find them all gone, and will have to Pay an Advance.

This is the third anniversary of the Haymarket riot in Chicago. Anarchists in Chicago and elsewhere can best observe the day by going about their business like law-abiding citizens.

Sir Julian Pauncefote presented his credentials, as minister from Great Britain, to the president yesterday and formally assumed the duties of his office. The reporter who asked him the other day to express an opinion on the political situation in this country, Sir Julian replied, "I have no opinion to express. I am not here for that purpose." It is evident that the indiscretions of Sir Julian's predecessor are not to be repeated.

Lord Randolph Churchill is one of the English politicians in whom Americans take an interest, for various reasons. His speeches collected, edited and annotated by Mr. Lewis J. Jennings, formerly of the New York Times, have just been published by Longmans. In his introduction the editor sketches Lord Randolph's political career and draws a piquant parallel with that of Lord Beaconsfield.

BRAVE WORDS.

A few days ago we referred briefly to the meagre report we published of Bishop Potter's address at the centennial services at Trinity church on April 30th. The full report justifies the favorable mention. Of all the addresses delivered Bishop Potter's is on the highest level and breathes the purest patriotism. Portions of it may not have been agreeable to some of his hearers, but it was a time to tell the truth. It was a time not simply to congratulate ourselves on our material greatness, but to put on sackcloth and ashes for any lowering of the standard of our national political life. It is of little importance that we have gained in wealth and population, if we have lost in political purity and moral worth. True patriotism must show itself in sincere endeavor to make our nationality not only and not in national glorification. What Bishop Potter said is so well worth reading by any one, that we re-print a part of it as follows.

"Now, that steadily accumulating proof against which during a season thinker of our own generation warned his countrymen just fifty years ago rises up on every hand against 'The constant importation,' wrote the author of the Wealth of Nations, 'we now into the country of the great numbers of people from whose character, manners and principles, the contagion of the most dangerous errors might infect the great body of our citizens.' Is not the very existence of the most dangerous errors among us to-day due to the constant importation of people from whose character, manners and principles the contagion of the most dangerous errors might infect the great body of our citizens?
